Mudsock Quilters Guild

From the President's Pen

December 1, 2014

What a busy time of year! I'm sure all of you are busy planning, shopping, sewing, and quilting! (And trying to stay warm---Brrrrrr!) I've got more projects going than there will time to finish, I'm sure. I became addicted to making little quilted mug rugs, so now I'm trying to catch up on previously planned projects, such as my challenge quilt!

Thank you to our guild members Karen Burkett for sharing her sewing tips and flower making skills in October and to Judy Ireland for sharing her stenciling techniques and magical talents in November. Both ladies' programs inspired me to add to my "want to do" list.

We have a fun meeting planned for December meeting. It will be a pitch-in salad/dessert brunch, starting at 10:30 (note the later time for this month only). We will have great quilting fellowship, wonderful food, inspiring show and tell (challenge projects and other), and fun games. See details of one of the games later in the newsletter. Hint: you might need to rummage through your stash! Don't forget, this month we will get to see the Challenge projects from those who committed last year to completing a specific Unfinished Project. I'm working diligently to finish mine, but you may just get to see my progress. I hope if you are in the same boat, you'll share your progress as well. I'm also looking forward to all other Show and Tell. It is always so fun and inspiring to see what other quilters are busy doing.

Hope you to see you at December Guild Brunch at the church and please plan to also join the afternoon sew-in at the Fishers Library! You will love the opportunity to get to know your fellow quilters better and will be able to have a block of time devoted to your projects. And maybe we can extend the guild party games!

Thank you to the nomination committee for their hard work on the 2015 Board and committee members and thank you to those who have accepted positions to serve our guild in the coming year.

I appreciate the opportunity to have served as your guild president during 2014. Thank you for enriching my life!

Happy Quilting!

Debbie

Important Upcoming Events

Next Meeting –December 8, 10:30AM – Fishers UMC

This will be our pitch-in salad/dessert brunch. No worries if you did not get the opportunity to sign up for salad or dessert; whatever you choose to bring will be enjoyed. One of the games planned will be a variation of 'LEFT, RIGHT, CENTER' using precut fabrics. So, if you would like to participate, please bring either of the following: three strips of fabric, each cut selvage to selvage 2 ½ inches wide, OR bring three 10 inch squares, OR bring three 5 inch squares. There will be three games played at the same time and the game you play will depend on which size of precut fabric you choose to bring. The winner of each group will win all the fabric precuts from that game. For those of you who would like to play again, for bigger stakes, maybe we could have a fat-quarter game at the library in the afternoon. If interested, please bring three fat quarters to the afternoon library sew-in, and if we have enough participants, we can play again! Game participant or not; Please join us for a fun afternoon of sewing and quilting!

For Show and Tell, we will be returning with our (hopefully) completed UFO/Challenge projects or any gift items or Holiday themed items (could be a lengthy and enjoyable Show and Tell!)

It's time to be wrapping up Block of the Month for 2014. So please return November blocks to Diane Peterson and pick up blocks from Lorraine Ohlman. This would also be a great time to turn in any "catch-up" blocks that you may have from previous months.
