From the President's Pen

I was feeling a little blue today.

I took some items up to my sewing/office room and decided to find a binding fabric for a tablemat that I've been working on for eons. Auditioned several fabrics and settled on one. Then considered additional beading options and different thread colors to re-complete the project. Made a small mess with the fabric choices, so I re-organized that fabric drawer. My phone dinged. Quick message check. Better check Facebook, too. There was a nice wool project, clicked on the link and viewed her patterns. Clicked on the link to Craftsy where she sells her patterns. Saved a couple of her ideas but didn't make a purchase. I might as well check the free Craftsy Quilt and Sewing patterns . Found several. Yes, Please! Next up, MSQC. (I know what I said a couple of months ago about the internet being a time waster, but I'm at it again, sigh.)

Hubby arrived home, so back downstairs, got us some tea and shared the day's events. Quick supper and back up to tidy the mess in the sewing room. Organized a few more drawers, put the tablemat project in the "Travel" bag. Did I mention that I am afflicted with "butt first" disease? That is when one task is constantly superseded by another, and that task is superseded by another and so on and so forth. Bet some of you have it too!

Hey, I'm not blue anymore!

Happy quilting!

Pat

August 8th Mudsock Quilters Guild Meeting (9:30 – 11:30+ a.m.)

Our speaker this month will be Jennifer Fulton. She is a member of the Quilters Guild of Indianapolis and has served as President, Vice-President, Quilt Retreat Chair and Co-Chair for Quilt Show Registration. She has been quilting since 1996 and has used her own designs to make quilts. She is also an experienced author with over 150 titles to her credit. She's a naturally curious person who enjoys teaching and sharing her love of quilting. In the past Jennifer has written mostly about computers and how to use them, but when she was presented recently with the opportunity to share her knowledge and love of quilting in a new book, she simply couldn't pass it up. Thus, Idiot's Guide: Quilting was born.

Jennifer blogs about her quilting adventures on her website, www.inquiringquilter.com. She has published several quilt patterns. Some will be available for purchase at our meeting. We will meet at the Fishers Library, large meeting room. We have the room all day, so bring your sewing.

Mark Your Calendars!! Upcoming Mudsock Events

- Aug. 04 Fundraising Workshop at the Community Pavilion at 146th & Cumberland Road, from 9:30-3:30. We will be learning how to make the Curved Log Cabin block. Twenty dollars donation to Mudsock Quilter's Guild.

- Oct. 10 Everyone is invited to share their quick and easy gift ideas. As we approach the Holiday Season, we thought you would like to have some new items to create. Please bring your ideas with instructions (or web sites) to share with us. This should be a fun! Bring some note paper to write down all the great ideas. We will then have 75 days to complete our gift items.
- Nov. 14 Our panel will present different methods of Applique.
- Dec. 12 We will have our annual Christmas Party.

Block of the Month NEWS

August 2016

Sandy Metzger was the winner of the Flower Pot blocks last month. What a colorful quilt it will be!

In July, Ellen presented a July Fourth quilt block pattern. The free pattern is located at <http://www.quilterscache.com/J/JulyFourthBlock.html>. Please use red, white and blue colors in your block. Prints and solids are welcome.

Completed July Fourth blocks can be entered into a drawing at the August meeting. Please put your name in the basket when you put your block on the wall.

Photo Opportunity

If you are new to Mudsock or you have not had your picture taken for our photo directory, please see Diane Peterson at our next meeting to have your picture taken before the meeting or during our break.

Other Quilting Events

Mar 4-Jan 8, 2017 The Indianapolis Museum of Art presents A Joy Forever: Marie Webster Quilts as part of Indiana's Bicentennial Celebration. This exhibition celebrates the legacy of Marie Daugherty Webster (1859-1956), who is considered one of the leading designers in the history of early 20th-century quilt making. Born and raised in Indiana, Webster designed and made her first appliquéd quilt in 1909. In the following years, her quilts were featured in Ladies' Home Journal, which brought her international fame and recognition. The exhibition consists of 25 appliquéd quilts designed and made by Marie Webster, which date from 1909-1930, 13 patterns, and original pages from Ladies' Home Journal. Marie Daugherty Webster's scrapbook is also displayed.

Jun 24-Sep 24 This is a regional SAQA exhibit (Studio Art Quilt Associates) by fiber artists in Indiana and several surrounding Midwestern states. It is a juried show in the Brett Waller Community Gallery on the first level near the museum shop (free access). Images of contemporary quilted/fiber art were submitted to the museum's curator of textile and fashion arts, and about 30 pieces were chosen for this exhibit. Judy Ireland of Mudsock Guild has a work in this show.

Contact Judy Ireland for more information on the above exhibits: ArtLadyJ@sbcglobal.net

Aug 26-27 Harvest of Quilts 2016 at Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church from 9-5 on Friday and 9-3 on Saturday sponsored by the Common Threads Quilt Guild of Hancock County. This year's theme is the Indiana Bi-centennial.
