

Select Page

Cardinal Block Pattern – Christmas 2017 Quilt Block

by kfulford | Oct 19, 2017 | Quilt Block Patterns | 5 comments

Cardinal

Why a cardinal for our 2017 Christmas quilt? Roxanne Joan Beckwith Coatney outlines it best in our minds;

“The cardinals are a symbol of faith and warmth with their bright red colour in the dreary days of winter, during which time Christmas comes. Their red colour is also a symbol or reminder of blood Jesus Christ shed for us on the cross. That’s why the cardinal is so often seen on Christmas cards and as decorations on trees, wreaths,

Key Block (1/5 actual size)

Row By Row Assembly

Assemble all of your cuts following the video Link Here or above

1st Row

2nd Row

3rd Row

Check out some of our quilting in our Gallery

6th Row

5th Row

4th Row

and garlands as well as painted on shop windows in winter or Christmas scenes," Please note that this cardinal pattern is a recreation of the images found on Pinterest and we take no credit for anything other than the building of the pattern to match the size we are looking for for the 2017 Christmas Quilt. We are providing this to our viewers as an example of how to make this pattern. All credit goes to the original creator of this very cute block.

The pattern is a 12 inch finished block with 4 or more fabric colours or you can switch out the body of red to multiple reds if you so desire and also the greens.

Cut chart

